1005'

Triangle Measurement Drawing

Topcon 3D Office created surfaces based on these point to point lines, their measurements, and elevations of the respective points. The 2 surfaces representing the top and bottom of pay, were compared by the software and a digital model of the pay formation was rendered. This model was calculated for volume and the results reported.

Comment:

